Five-Man Team Disarms It; Power Failure Found Cause

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—An atomic test weapon failed to explode because of power failure today but the device was successfully disarmed several hours later.

The darkness and silence of the misfire were as stunning to entrenched Marines and waiting observers as the expected flash and thunder of atomic explosion.

Cannot Give Any Promise On A-Weapons

Press Chief States All Depends on UN Disarmament Talks

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany can "under no circumstances" give the Soviet Union a blanket promise to renounce atomic weapons, a government spokesman said today.

Press Chief Felix von Eckhardt declared the question of equipping West German soldiers with A-weapons is not immediate, but depends on the outcome of the U.N. disarmament conference in London.

The Soviet Union demanded in a note delivered in Moscow yesterday that West Germany promise not to manufacture atomic weapons, use them to equip its army, or permit any third power to stockpile them on West German territory.

Von Eckhardt repeated at a news conference the government's statement that West Germany does not now possess A-weapons and has not yet asked for them. That is what Bonn told the Russians in a note May 22. But in yesterday's reply the Kremlin dismissed this declaration as "election campaign propaganda."

Von Eckhardt said the Bonn government hoped for a positive result from the London conference which would remove the necessity for making any decision on atomic armament for West Germany.

But, he added, the possibility of failure had to be taken into account, which was why West Germany could not now individually surrender the right to arm with modern weapons in case of emergency.

Delivery Meeting Testified

Lawyer-Investigator Winds Up Five Days On Witness Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—John C. Cheasty testified today he delivered data from the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee's files to James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union vice president, just before Hoffa's arrest the night of March 13 by FBI agents.

Cheasty, lawyer-investigator for the committee, wound up five days of testimony as the government's chief witness in the trial of Hoffa and Hyman I. Fischbach, Miami attorney, on bribery-conspiracy charges.

Cheasty said he took money from Hoffa and promised to steal committee file material on steel committee President Dave Beck, but let authorities in on the deal from the start and was under constant watch of the FBI.

Defense counsel will now take over Cheasty on cross-examination.

Cheasty spent all day yesterday testifying about delivering data on Beck last March 12 to Hoffa.

Today the witness told of events the following day, March 13.

Prosecutor Edward P. Trossell pulled a surprise yesterday by producing a series of a dozen photographs identified by Cheasty as showing a $2,000 spy-job payoff on a busy Washington traffic circle during the rush hour.

Cheasty said the pictures made the day before Hoffa's arrest showed Hoffa slipping him a wad of bills in return for a sheaf of material on Teamsters President Dave Beck taken from committee files.

FBI agents whom Cheasty had tipped off in advance, he said, watched every move he and Hoffa made, even driving a taxi they occupied and snapping the series of pictures. The FBI men stripped him naked five times that day, Cheasty said, to get court proof for the present trial of just when he obtained the $2,000.

Cheasty said the Senate committee screened in advance the material on Beck he later turned over to Hoffa. Cheasty said Hoffa, after reading it in a hotel room for six hours, whistled that "if that's what they've got on Beck, his goose is cooked."

Government Ends Siege in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Pedro Aramburu's provisional government today ended the state of siege over Argentina and freed the first of an estimated 170 political prisoners.

Lifting of the state of siege—a modified form of martial law—restored full constitutional rights in Argentina for the first time in nearly six years.

It was regarded as a bold move by Aramburu to tranquilize the country, but there was concern in some quarters that opposition factions might try to use the new freedom to increase their efforts to scuttle the provisional government.

Hurricane Audrey's Toll Mounts To 100 Mark, May Reach Thousands

Rescue Outfits Probe Marshland For Storm Dead

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—Hurricane Audrey's death toll climbed to the 100 mark today and a deputy sheriff said the storm's victims could reach 3,000 to 4,000.

The greatest concentration of casualties from the swirling waters was at the remote city of Cameron where 87 were presumed dead.

The hurricane roared into the Texas and Louisiana coasts yesterday and earlier reports said 18 were lost and presumed dead. Some of the victims were duplicated in today's reports.

Wary rescue teams probed the marshlands for victims or survivors. Some reports said bodies were located floating on debris miles from Cameron.

Deputy Sheriff D. P. Vincent of Cameron Parish was among 40 survivors brought in on the Coast Guard boat Blue Bonnet shortly after daybreak today. He said he believed "3,000 to 4,000 drowned" as the huge tidal waves swept inland.

The report of 87 dead at Cameron by police radio came after earlier tolls placed the storm's victims at 18. Five of the 18 were from Cameron.

Although there was no official estimate of casualties, the Red Cross here said they knew of at least 1,000 persons in the Cameron area who did not evacuate as Audrey moved toward the coast.

Ken Dixon, managing editor of the Lake Charles American Press said he believed the fatalities would easily run into several hundred.

Coast Guard Chief Boatswain's Mate E. L. Begler, who piloted the boat that brought in Vincent and the other survivors, said when informed of Vincent's estimate: "It's hard to tell how many died. So many people talk of losing families of six or nine."

Another survivor on the Blue Bonnet, an old woman counting her fingers, said, "I lost all my six children."

The Red Cross disaster headquarters released a 12-name casualty list, five of which were from the Cameron hurricane. Abel LaBlanc, a Negro whose two children are missing, said a 15-foot tidal wave hit their big home.

Colonel Beck Departs For New Assignment

Personnel of the 340th Bombardment Wing and Whiteman Air Force Base personnel passed in review Friday morning at the base honoring the wing commander, who in the past three years developed one of the finest bombardment wings in the Strategic Air Command.

Col. A. J. Beck assumed command of the Wing July 2, 1954, and left Whiteman Friday to assume new duties as wing commander of the 4082nd Strategic Wing, Goosebay AFB, Labrador. Col. Beck's successor has not been named by Eighth Air Force Headquarters yet.

On the wing commander's arrival in 1954, many operational facilities were still under construction, the wing was only two thirds manned and few B-47s stood on the ramp. Many of the 340th crew members were still in transitional training and the wing had yet to complete its first scheduled operational training flight.

Under the leadership of Col. Beck, the wing has achieved many honors while establishing an enviable combat-ready record. During the wing's combat-ready graduation deployment exercise in 1955, the 340th flew a superior unit simulated combat mission, the best ever accomplished at that overseas station. In August, 1956, the wing placed second among B-47 bomb units in SAC's bombing "World Series" at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio, and in February of this year the

Early Crop Affected

Considerable Amount of Corn Appears Infested With Borer

By MERLE VAUGHAN
Pettis County Agent

It now appears that a considerable amount of the early corn in Pettis County is infested with the European corn borer. With the damp weather holding up harvest, farmers can make good use of that time checking their corn fields.

Probably corn that is less than waist high now will never have much infestation except that real late corn may be caught by the second brood. Some that is shoulder high is pretty well infested, as the moths lay their eggs in the early corn. Estimates are that one worm in a stalk will reduce production about three per cent.

We have found some stalks with 618 worms. Of course, some stalks will have no worms.

Now the bigger worms are already in the stalks and the holes can be seen with a lot of wet frass sticking out. Nothing can be done about them. However, there are a lot of smaller worms down in the leaf sheaths and a spray will get them.

The smaller worms are white with a black head and are from 1/4 to 1/2 inch long. The larger worms are more of a grayish color. The best way to check a stalk is to cut it off and then peel off each leaf sheath, one at a time.

The next question is how much damage before spraying is justified. The field should be checked for leaf feeding scars. These are usually found near the whorl, and are small, elongated spots where the young worms chew the green from the leaves before boring inside the stalk. When about 75 per cent of the plants show leaf feeding scars and considerable of the worms have not yet entered the stalk, spraying is justified.

For control, use 1 1/4 pounds of DDT (three quarts of 25 percent emulsifiable concentrate) per acre as a spray in at least ten gallons of water per acre.

Control can also be obtained by airplane and we have made arrangements with Wegmeyer Flying Service of Warrensburg. Calls for the spraying can be made to Gib Owens of the T & O Rock Phosphate Company. Their phone is 1805.

Further information can be obtained at the extension office.

Missouri Girls State Delegates Tour Offices

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A group of giggling girls toured state government offices today as elective officials of girls state looked over the positions for which they were chosen earlier.

Miss Jeana Sue Herl of Hannibal, elected girls state governor, admired the just re-decorated offices of Gov. James T. Blair and allowed:

"I think I'll follow Governor Blair's example" by not calling a special session of the Legislature to enact the omnibus appropriation bill — the catchall money measure that died in the whirlwind of confusion as the legislature quit May 31.

Blair, meanwhile, has said he still doesn't know whether he'll call the Legislature back or not. But whether Miss Herl calls a special session of the Girls State Legislature was of little moment. The House and Senate met during the day anyway in mock sessions to test their lawmaking prowess.

Other officers of girls state who tried out the offices to which they were elected included Lt. Gov. Patricia Worley of St. Louis, Atty. Gen. Linda Long of Sedalia and Secy. of State Sharon Gerber of St. Joseph.

He Denounces Communists As Hostile

He Says It Would Be 'Folly' to Give Enemies Any Help

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles denounced Communist China today as an uncivilized, hostile regime and said "it would be folly" to establish relations "which would enhance" the Reds' ability to hurt this country and its friends.

In his first major speech on Red Chinese policy in three years Dulles rejected every argument for major change in the United States policies of nonrecognition, trade embargo and cultural isolation.

He said U. S. policies are based on the assumption that Communist rule in China is "a passing phase."

This country intends to do all it can to speed the passing, Dulles said, and ruled out arguments that change would be promoted by U. S. diplomatic, trade and cultural relations with the Reds.

"There are occasions when others, and not we, should provide the change," Dulles said, but he did not hold out any hope that the Communists are about to revolutionize themselves.

The hope he did hold out was that the Chinese people, to whom he said communism is as "repugnant" as to the people of Soviet satellites in Europe, will eventually bring about the end of Red despotism in China.

Meanwhile, Dulles argued, the United States must stand firm on the policies it believes to be right. "Nothing could be more dangerous," he said, "than for the United States to operate on the theory that if hostile and evil forces do not quickly or readily change, then it is we who must change to meet them."

Dulles' remarks were evidently directed toward Allied countries like Britain, which recognizes Red China, and neutrals like India which argue for some modification of United States policy.

It was also directed toward domestic critics who contend that the policy of no contact is a sterile one which takes no advantage of possible differences between Red China and Russia.

Dulles made no mention of one of the most active Red China issues before him—the question of letting American newsmen go in to Red China from which they are now barred by his refusal to validate passports for travel there.

His speech today, observers in Washington said, could provide a basis for reaffirming his stand against letting newsmen go to the Chinese mainland. It could also, however, represent a reaffirmation of major U. S. policy so that a decision to permit American reporters to enter Red China would perhaps not be interpreted abroad as a sign of weakening in the basic American attitude.

Dulles rejected virtually every argument for establishment of formal relations between Washington and the Peiping regime.

He said seating Red China in the U. N. would not be "in the interest either of the United States or of the United Nations."

Soil Bank Prospects Are Brighter

Senate-House Group Agrees on Money Bill for Payments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prospects looked brighter today for continuing the soil bank program without major change next year.

A Senate-House conference committee last night reached agreement on a compromise Agriculture Department money bill reportedly approving about 500 millions for payments next year under the acreage reserve act of the soil bank program.

When the appropriations bill was passed by the House earlier in the session, it barred provision of any funds for acreage reserve payments next year. The Senate voted to authorize 900 millions for such payments—250 millions less than President Eisenhower requested. The conferees were said to have accepted the Senate figure.

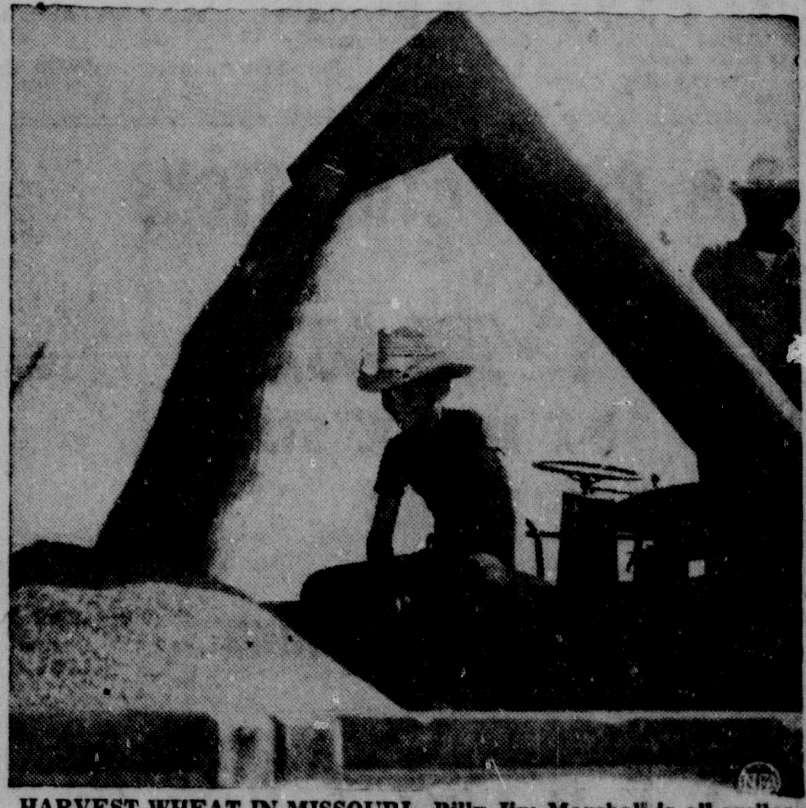

It remained to be seen whether the full House would backtrack from its original 192-187 vote to end acreage reserve payments after the Fourth of July recess. Some administration backers have predicted the House will reverse its earlier stand on the soil bank.

Only the barest details of the conference group's agreement were immediately available. Full details will not be known officially until the committee files its report next week.

But it was reported the conferees agreed on slightly less than the $3,668,972,157 the Senate voted for the Agriculture Department and government farm programs for the 1958 fiscal year starting next Monday. The House had approved a total of about 24 millions more than the Senate.

Both Senate and House bills provide 600 million dollars for acreage reserve payments in 1957.

More Arms Received By South Korea

SEOUL — Sleek supersonic American jet fighter planes ranged over South Korea today, one week after the U.N. Command announced it was bringing in new arms to match the Communist military buildup in North Korea.

But the U.S. Air Force quickly announced that the aircraft—banned by the 1953 armistice—would not be based in Korea. They will fly over on "training" flights and return to their Japanese bases, landing in South Korea only for refueling or in emergencies.

The first of the new planes sighted were four faster-than-sound F100 Super Sabre jets, which flashed over Seoul shortly after midday. Flights of other modern fighters and bombers were expected later.

The U.S. Air Force announced that "all types of aircraft now in use by the 5th Air Force (based in Japan) are or will be flying the skies and using the airways of South Korea."

The announcement emphasized that the flights were "of routine training nature" and said the planes "flying these missions were not assigned to Korean bases but were using these bases as needed in their training."

Word that the new planes would continue to operate from their Japanese bases came as a surprise. Previous U.N. Command statements had indicated that the planes would be based in Korea so they could retaliate quicker in the event of a Communist attack.

There was no immediate reaction from South Korean officials, who have been urging that atomic weapons be given to their forces as well as to the Americans in South Korea.

A U.S. Air Force spokesman at the big American base near Osan, 35 miles south of Seoul, explained that the only routine contact between the Air Force in Korea and the Japan-based planes would be "directional" and for navigation and weather information.

This seemed to indicate that the flights over Korea were designed to familiarize the plane crews with the Korean terrain and conditions over the peninsula, and to work out an air-ground liaison which would operate smoothly in the event of renewed fighting.

Reports Man Received Term for US Spying

BERLIN — The Communist newspaper Volksstimme today reported that Heinz Sacks, a 32-year-old East German, has been sentenced to four years in prison for spying on the Russian armed forces for the United States.

The paper said Sacks was tried in Magdeburg, an industrial city 95 miles southwest of Berlin.

No Effect On Stassen By Pressure

LONDON — U.S. Delegate Harold E. Stassen appeared unmoved today by increasing Soviet pressure to lay all his disarmament cards on the table at once.

Despite the Russians' impatience, Stassen indicated he would continue to set forth the new U.S. disarmament plan bit by bit at the London meeting of the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin told the five-nation group yesterday Russia would have to know the complete American plan before agreeing to the appointment of working groups to map details for an arms reduction treaty. He urged Stassen to speed up his presentation.

Stassen said he had spent more than a week presenting the broad new U.S. disarmament plan. As yet he has only touched on conventional weapons, manpower levels and a liaison which would operate smoothly in the event of renewed fighting.

There also was speculation the United States was taking its time in the hope of dissipating the propaganda advantage Russia won two weeks ago with its offer to let U.N. inspectors into Soviet territory to oversee a moratorium on nuclear tests.

Stassen said the fact that agreement on a partial arms reduction treaty is now in sight after 11 years of disagreement makes it even more vital that the subcommittee not attempt to move too fast at this stage.

Sassen has spent more than a week presenting the broad new U.S. disarmament plan. As yet he has only touched on conventional weapons, manpower levels and a liaison which would operate smoothly in the event of renewed fighting.

The plan, which Stassen originally presented April 17, calls for a 14-nation board of control on which the present subcommittee members would have veto power, and an international inspection service. The board of control would be supervised by the U.N. Security Council.

Bus and Truck Crash Kills One, Injures Others

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — A Greyhound bus collided with a tractor trailer on the New Jersey Turnpike early today, killed one passenger and injuring the driver and all of the 13 other passengers.

Dead on arrival at Middlesex General Hospital was Arthur Foxwell Tyler, 63, Baltimore. One of the injured, a woman tentatively identified by police as Marie Price, also of Baltimore, was in critical condition at the hospital.

Police said the bus, driven by Bernard Moran, 32, Wayne, Pa., and bound from Philadelphia to New York City, hit the tractor trailer from behind.

Tyler and the woman were sitting in the right front seats of the bus and were catapulted out through the windshield by the impact. They landed on the rear of the trailer and became entangled between its moving wheels.

Members of the Milltown rescue squad had to jack up the trailer and cut through part of its framework with acetylene torches to free the woman.

Middlesex Hospital, which admitted most of the injured, said the woman was in critical condition with repressed compound fracture of the skull, possible compound fracture of the right knee and multiple abrasions.

The condition of the other injured at the hospital was not serious, officials said. Four of the injured, including the bus driver, were taken to

Rules O'Dwyer Failed to Report Taxable Income

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Tax Court has ruled that former New York Mayor William O'Dwyer and his former wife Sloan Simpson failed to report $11,500 in taxable income for 1949 and 1951.

The court directed them yesterday to recompute their tax liability for those years and also for 1950. The court held that some of O'Dwyer's 1950 tax deductions were not permissible.

In connection with the allegedly unreported income, the court said O'Dwyer in 1949 was handed $10,000 in cash by John P. Crane, president of the Uniformed Firemen's Assn. of New York City.

The court said there was evidence Crane turned over the money to O'Dwyer as a campaign contribution, but "the record is devoid of evidence showing the disposition of these funds."

If the $10,000 was used in a reelection campaign, it would not be taxable, but the court said O'Dwyer in declining to testify at his tax trial failed to establish the money was not taxable.

The court said the then Mrs. O'Dwyer received $1,500 from "some undisclosed source" in 1951, and also has not explained whether it should be regarded as taxable income.

O'Dwyer now lives in Mexico City.

Joseph W. Appleman, superintendent at Alcoa, said Sprigg reportedly bought wine onto the reformatory grounds a couple of months ago. Yesterday morning, Appleman said, he watched Sprigg arrive and put his car in the guards' garage.

Then a Highway Patrol trooper was called to make the arrest. Sprigg was in Cole County jail tonight under $500 bail.

Washouts Delay Trains Early Friday

Train service from the east on the Missouri Pacific was delayed Friday morning due to washouts on that road at Valley Park and also east and west of Pacific.

Service was restored early in the day and westbound trains reached here several hours late.

Two Are Hurt In Auto Crash North of City

Two persons were injured, neither seriously, in a two-car collision about 8:20 Thursday evening. The accident occurred about five miles north of Sedalia on Highway 65 one-fourth mile north of the Bothwell School.

Richard Dee Schroeder, 20, Route 4, received multiple lacerations and his eight-months-old daughter, Stephanie, suffered a broken left arm. Schroeder's wife, Barbara, 20, who was also riding in the car was not injured.

The driver of the other car, Jerry L. Engle, formerly of Sedalia and now of Marshall, apparently was not injured.

The accident occurred as Engle attempted to pass the Schroeder car as it slowed to turn into a lane leading up to the farm of Charles Wise, Route 4. The Schroeders were on their way to a birthday party at the Wise home when the accident occurred. Both cars were traveling north.

Engle's 1957 Mercury station wagon was extensively damaged and came to a halt in the ditch on the west side of the road. The Schroeder car, a 1956 Chevrolet, was rolled over by the crash and landed on its top partially in the ditch, also on the west side of the highway. It was completely demolished.

The Schroeder family was brought to Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance and Engle was brought to the hospital in a private car. Dr. T. J. Hopkins treated the injured.

State Trooper Robert Stockdell investigated the accident.

Fugitive Seized By Police, F. B. I.

Thomas Elvares Culver, known locally as Tom Craig, was apprehended Thursday by local police and FBI agents, according to Percy Wyly II, special agent in charge of the Kansas City office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The arrest is based on a federal warrant charging Culver under the fugitive felon act with having fled the state of Oregon to avoid prosecution for the crime of burglary for which the maximum sentence under Sec. 1073, Title 18 of the U. S. Code is $5,000 fine or five years' imprisonment, or both.

Culver was taken to Kansas City for arraignment.

Two Men Are Injured By Falling Machine While Doing Repair

One man was severely injured and another received a laceration when a heavy piece of machinery fell shortly after 1 p. m. Thursday at the Pittsburgh-Corning plant on West 16th, according to a report received from a plant official.

Jim Gotshall, Route 3, a mechanic at the plant, received a broken jaw bone, cheek bone and several broken ribs when the machine fell and struck him a glancing blow.

Bothwell Hospital reported Friday morning that Gotshall was transferred to a Kansas City Hospital. Fred Yonce, 1101 East Ninth, was given stitches in a laceration on his knee and x-rays then was sent home.

The two men were engaged in repair work at the time the accident happened.

Asked to Criticize Regime; Is Now Sorry for Harshness

HONG KONG (AP)—Some prominent Chinese who accepted Mao Tse-tung's invitation to criticize the Communist regime are apologizing now for their harsh words.

Among the first to recant publicly was Chang Po-chun, Red China's minister of communications and a leader of the Democratic League, largest of the non-Communist parties allowed by the Reds.

"I am greatly ashamed of myself," Chang declared in an abrupt confession of self-error published two weeks ago in the official Peiping Peoples Daily. The issue arrived in Hong Kong today.

"I have failed to live up to the expectations of the Communist party and Chairman Mao, who have guided me and trusted me these past years," Chang wrote. "I have committed a serious mistake ideologically."

Chang, 61, is one of the most prominent nonparty members of the Red China government. He helped organize the Democratic League in 1940 and stayed in China to work with the Communists after the Nationalist government was overthrown in 1949. He accompanied Red Premier Chou En-lai to Moscow for Stalin's funeral.

Chang made his error after Mao urged free criticism of the government in his "Let all flowers bloom and a hundred schools of thought contend" speech in February. On May 22 Chang proposed formation of a "political planning board" which in effect would have given the country's eight minor parties equal or greater status than the Communists.

Now Chang has confessed: "My stand was not firm, my understanding was confused and I had assumed a most flippant, liberalist attitude in dealing with state policies so that I came under evil political influences and was exploited by rightists."

The same issue of the Peoples Daily said two other Democratic League officials—Yeh Tu-yi, member of the Standing Committee, and Chen Hain-kuei, alternate Central Committee member—had also confessed errors at a tense meeting of the party's Central Committee. Only a few days earlier Chen had questioned the soundness of "the proletarian dictatorship."

Teamsters Group Keeps Brewster As President

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The Western Conference of Teamsters adopted a new constitution last night and left Frank Brewster, 60, of Seattle, as head of the group.

The name of his office was changed from chairman to president, and he automatically continues to hold it. He was re-appointed conference head Monday by International Teamster Union President Dave Beck.

Other offices were made elective—for the first time in the conference—and a 16-man Executive Board was created which will hereafter have a big say in conference affairs.

William Franklin, Seattle, was elected new secretary-treasurer. His signature, as well as Brewster's, must now appear on union checks.

Other controls on union finances were included in the constitutional change. Among them were provisions for audits and reports.

Brewster and his elective aides said the new constitution is subject to ratification of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters convention in Miami, Fla., in September—but said that they considered it a mere formality.

Completes 911-Mile Walk Across Britain

JOHN O'GROATS HOUSE, Scotland (AP)—William C. Merrett, a 53-year-old South African, last night completed a 911-mile walk the length of the British Isles. It took him 35 days.

Merrett started his walk at Land's End, the southernmost point. John O'Groats is the northernmost point.

The Capetown said he made the walk to train for the 100-mile Bath-to-London walking contest July 6.

Preparing 1957 Tax Returns

Even though the days of filing 1956 income taxes are long past the subject is not one soon to be forgotten. In fact, every adult in this country devotes intermittent attention to how income and outgo affect his taxes for the current year.

Keeping memoranda in anticipation of having pertinent and accurate data for preparation of income tax returns next year, should become a monthly if not a weekly habit.

Individuals are finding it increasingly difficult to prepare their own returns. More and more persons find it much better for their peace of mind to turn the job over to a reliable tax expert. But even the latter must have some figures to work on. These are best prepared and saved as the taxpayer encounters them each day, week or month.

Days are gone when just about anyone could make out a correct income tax return except in very elementary cases. Without expert advice, surprisingly enough, many taxpayers actually cheat themselves because of incomplete understanding of deductible allowances.

A tax advisor should be selected with care, too. In an address before the Wisconsin Society of Certified Public Accountants, Commissioner Harrington called attention to the relatively large number of instances involving tax consultants filing false and fraudulent returns for others. In one case alone over 1,000 returns were prepared by a self-styled consultant and resulted in disallowances of over $400,000 in claimed deductions. The ensuing additional taxes and penalties totaled $170,000. The Commissioner stated that rarely are these offenders members of recognized professional groups; in fact, many are almost completely lacking in qualifications.

Pointing out that taxpayers who seek dubious assistance must stand responsible for the accuracy of the entries and calculations in their returns, the Commissioner indicated that a tax advisor should be chosen as carefully as the purveyor of any other professional service.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Only Friends Play Golf With Each Other

By DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON—At his "harmony" breakfast with GOP congressmen, President Eisenhower reported that his foursome golf match with Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi ended in a tie score.

"That sounds like 'customer' golf to me," quipped an unidentified guest.

"Yes, Mr. President," said Rep. George Meader of Michigan, "people may think that you and the Prime Minister weren't trying very hard to win over each other."

"No, it was on the level," grinned Ike. "We were playing a high-low point match and it worked out that way. Sen. Prescott Bush (Conn.) was the Prime Minister's partner and the translator was playing with me."

Ike added that the golf match produced a friendly reaction in the Japanese press.

"One of the Tokyo papers," he said, "pointed out that unfriendly nations may negotiate at a conference table, but only friends play golf with each other."

The President, as usual, strolled from table to table in the White House dining room, answering questions and trading banter with his GOP guests. Asked to comment on a recent speech by Democrat Rep. Bob Sikes of Florida, in which Sikes humorously suggested that Democrats should have "equal time" with Republicans at the White House breakfasts, Ike responded:

"Look, I'm paying for these meals out of my own pocket. If the Democrats want to come, it's okay with me, provided the government helps me pay the bill. Ask Mr. Sikes what he thinks about that."

Rep. Harry McGregor of Ohio praised the quality of the breakfast bacon, then worked in a commercial for his state.

"I'm taking it for granted that such good bacon as this must have come from Ohio."

"I'm not sure," replied Ike. "However, I do have an Aberdeen Angus heifer from your district. We had a little trouble when she calved recently, but I think she's going to be an extra good one."

No FBI Yet

It's hard to believe, but Attorney General Brownell, as of this writing, has not yet ordered the FBI to investigate the big highway scandal in Indiana. This is the scandal where Maurice Hutcheson, head of the carpenters, was caught cashing in on land sure to be bought for the federal highway.

Ordinarily, the FBI would be called upon to investigate this immediately. But if you ask the Justice Department whether the FBI is investigating, they will tell you that Attorney General Brownell is "evaluating the situation to ascertain what the facts are." Yet federal money is involved. Furthermore, alert Senator Gore of Tennessee, who discovered the scandal, has sent all the facts to Brownell and urged action. Despite this, Brownell is stalling.

It just happens that Maurice Hutcheson and his father, the late big Bill Hutcheson, long-time czar of the Carpenters Union, are among the few labor leaders who have consistently supported the Republicans. In fact, Bill Hutcheson was one of only two Indiana delegates to the GOP convention in Chicago in '52 who voted for Ike.

Furthermore, Elmer (Little Doc) Sherwood, famed Republican lobbyist from Indiana and a power in the American Legion, is a good friend of the Attorney General's. Maybe two and two make four—in politics as well as arithmetic.

White House Couldn't Change Him
One man who didn't listen to the White House during the hectic Hells Canyon debate was Sen. John Sherman Cooper, Republican of Kentucky. Cooper was sitting quietly on the Senate floor listening to the Hells Canyon speeches when a page boy came up to him.

"Senator," he said, "Governor Adams of the White House wants you in both 4."

The page boy was referring to Sherman Adams, assistant president, and the most vigorous lobbyist for the big utilities in the entire administration.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (no relation to the Sherman in the White House) courteously went to the telephone. When he came back he listened to the debate further and then cast his vote—against the White House.

"Senator from California"
Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, sometimes called "the Senator from California" because he spends so much time at La Jolla Beach near San Diego, Calif., has been getting into more absentee trouble with his constituents.

Senator Goldwater has a home at LaJolla. He also has a home in Phoenix. Lately he has been canceling speaking engagements in Arizona to speak in other parts of the country. This does not go down well with the people who elected him.

The other day he canceled a commencement address before the Prescott High School June 4 on the excuse that he had to speak in Wisconsin. He did speak in Wisconsin June 8. But he had plenty of time to speak at the Prescott High School in Arizona first. Naturally, the youngsters were disappointed, to say nothing of their parents.

The week following, Goldwater canceled a speech before the American Legion in Phoenix. The Legion had given him the choice of June 13, 14 or 15. He could have taken either date. But he canceled out to go to Michigan to speak June 14 in a debate against the United Auto Workers.

Some Arizonans intimate that come November of 1958 they should vote to let the "Senator from California" remain in California and other parts permanently.

Setting Goal For 1960

When Senator Knowland of California months ago announced his 1958 retirement from the Senate, no one seriously thought this was the end of him in politics.

On the basis of his 1956 activities as a candidate before President Eisenhower's intentions were known, Knowland was assumed to be extremely interested in the White House. Also, sharp enough to realize that the Senate generally is a poor steppingstone in that direction.

The obvious first target was the California governorship now held by Republican Goodwin J. Knight. And now California's political observers are convinced that Knowland intends to reach for that prize.

How Knight and that other leading California Republican, Vice President Nixon, will adjust to this clear indication is the matter now holding political interest. Before too long we will know whether a donnybrook is in prospect or whether these men, following an old political custom, will find some means of compromising their various ambitions as they shape up in 1958.

Conqueror Complex

In the American League, as in the National, there are eight competing baseball teams. One would imagine that it would be quite all right if any one of these captured the championship in a particular year.

But the New York Yankees don't see it that way. They seem to feel that the earth is out of its normal orbit if they are not in first place.

Let them fall a few games off the pace and the Yankee crew is in an uproar. There is talk of trades, of feuds between the field manager and the front office, of players shirking.

It's a wonder some Yankee executive doesn't suggest that the team march en masse to stretch out on some spacious psychiatric couch and search for a winning formula deep in their collective memories.

One can admire the Yankees' unshakable confidence and yet feel baffled that they imagine the other seven teams are destined forever to look at the backs of their shirts.

They say the Yankees always draw the crowds. Maybe so, but probably a good many come out hoping they'll get beaten. It might be a lot of fun if they were.

The World Today

Retiring AEC Members Has Parting Shot

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Thomas E. Murray has fired a shot at a time when the administration is at least going through the motions of talking with the Russians about banning nuclear bomb tests and making atomic weapons.

This shot may not have been heard around the world but it got some attention in the capital. Murray's term is up Sunday as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission. And President Eisenhower wouldn't reappoint him.

Murray himself favors banning tests of huge nuclear weapons—like the big H-bomb exploded in 1954 with a force equivalent to 15 million tons of TNT—but he wants no ban on testing or making smaller atomic weapons.

These, Murray says, are what this country will need by the tens of thousands in case of a limited nuclear war with Russia. He wants these smaller weapons stockpiled with the bigger ones—just in case.

And he doesn't have a high opinion of the way the Eisenhower administration is going about stockpiling them. Why? Because, he said in effect, officials are too ignorant of the problem facing this country to know what they're doing.

The Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, where Democrats predominate, is hiring Democrat Murray as a consultant.

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

E. T. Kirkpatrick, 78, editor of the Russellville Rustler, died after being stricken with a heart attack while on a hunt with friends. He was born in Sedalia in 1854 and as a boy took up the printers' trade. For five years he was cashier of a bank in Merwin.

1932
The Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Baker, visiting at Springfield, were to go to Hollister, Mo., to attend a Home Missionary Conference of the Federated Council of the Church of Christ in America.

1932
F. G. Buchanan, president of the Sedalia Rotary Club, was in Seattle, Wash., at a convention of Rotary International.

1932
With an abundance of vegetables in gardens, the Melita Day Nursery announced it was in a receptive mood to take suitable provisions donated and that fruits would likewise be very acceptable as funds were insufficient to meet all needs.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Army exemption board for Pettis County—Newton P. Elmore, county clerk; W. W. Bolton, sheriff; and Dr. C. B. Trader, county physician—met and organized and a report of their action was telegraphed to the adjutant general of the U.S. Army.

1917
Frank Clark, superintendent of the Broadway lighting plant, and George Gunter, engineer there, were at Hutchison, Kan., attending a meeting of engineers of Dorothy properties.

1917
Con Quinn of Quinn Bros. Shoe Co. was in St. Louis attending a meeting of directors of the Missouri State Shoe Retailers Association.

1917
Shields R. Smith, manager for the Home Telephone Co., was in Tipton on business relative to telephone affairs.

when his term on the AEC ends this week.

Yesterday, as just about his last official act, he handed the committee a 25-page statement on his views, let reporters have copies, and called a news conference.

It wasn't much of a conference. An AEC specialist on classified information—information considered too secret to be made public—sat beside him and greatly limited the answers he could give to questions.

Murray's complaint seems to be that the administration doesn't realize that the next war may be a limited one—fought with atomic weapons smaller than giant size—and that we need to build up a tremendous supply of them.

The administration has proposed to the Russians a stoppage of all nuclear testing provided both sides also stop making atomic weapons. In a summary attached to his statement Murray said: "The margin of ignorance in official circles is still too wide to guarantee the wisdom of policies. That's nice for saying they don't know what they're doing."

In the statement itself he said: "There is little evidence that a policy of rational nuclear armament is in operation. There is still considerable evidence the structure of our policies is still upside down."

He thinks the general public is ignorant on the prospect of limited nuclear war—and how to prepare for it—but he blames that on the administration's policy of secrecy.

President Truman appointed Murray to the AEC. He has been in disagreement with other members of the AEC on the role the government should play in the peaceful development of atomic energy.

News of what Murray said about a shortage of tactical atomic weapons didn't bother Secretary of Defense Wilson much. Said Wilson: "I'm not sure of any program that is behind. Whether you have enough of anything is something that is the personal opinion of an individual."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.
"Nosiness" is a habit practiced by scores of people who get a thrill out of prying into the business of other people.

Somehow these people never seem to see the whole picture. They view only a small portion of an incident and then fill in the missing background with a broad use of the imagination.

God knows everything we do, but He does not take portions of our lives out of context. He does not criticize, nor gossip about His knowledge. Rather He puts out His hand to offer guidance away from pitfalls.

Those who accept God as their guide and their Father cannot be "nosy." They cannot pry into the other person's business and gossip about him. God's way is more satisfying than the way of the busybody.

Dr. Jordan Says

Eyeglasses Are Needed To Correct Astigmatism

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Mrs. M. says she is troubled with astigmatism and wants to know where she should go to get this corrected.

I find this inquiry slightly puzzling because I do not know how Mrs. M. could know that she had astigmatism unless she had already been to an expert who had examined her eyes.

There is no medicine or operation which will "cure" astigmatism. Its treatment involves the use of eyeglasses which correct the curves in the eye responsible for the condition.

There are many kinds of astigmatism but in all of them the difficulty is that the rays of light which enter the eye do not come to a clear focus in the back of the eyeball. Someone who has astigmatic eyes, therefore, sees objects as though blurred or fuzzy.

It is not unusual for astigmatism to run in families. Consequently astigmatism, or the tendency to it, may be present at birth. Rarely injuries, operations or inflammation can produce this difficulty. In the vast majority, however, an obvious cause is lacking.

The eyeball is shaped like a sphere. The rays of light come through the circular part of the eye called the pupil. If the eyeball becomes twisted in any plane the rays of light will also become twisted and will not come to a focus.

The astigmatism is not always in the same plane, and it is usually different in the two eyes. For this reason, when glasses are necessary for astigmatism, the lenses necessary to correct the defect for the right and left eye usually will not be alike.

To correct astigmatism, each eye must be examined to determine just what change there has been in the curvature and which planes need correction. Then the lens for the glasses is prescribed and ground in such a way that it will counteract the error and bring the parallel rays of light to a single focal point in the back of the eye. Thus the image of what is seen again becomes clear and sharp.

Expert training is necessary to find out what is the matter and to prescribe exactly the type of glasses needed to correct the errors. Special instruments are required and in most cases physicians place a drop of atropine or something like it in the eyes, which causes the pupil to become dilated and makes the examination of the eye more simple and more accurate.

Of course, the eyes should be tested at the same time for such diseases as glaucoma or cataract. Also astigmatism may be associated with near or farsightedness which, if present, should be corrected in the same glasses.

Sedalia Amateur Sunday

More Than 100 Area Golfers Are Expected

The Eighth Annual Sedalia Amateur golf tournament will be staged on Sunday at Country View Golf Course with a large array of trophies and merchandise prizes being offered.

The tournament is expected to attract more than 100 golfers from the Sedalia area and throughout Central Missouri, including a number of champions of other sand greens tournaments held over the state this spring.

Entrants will be playing their nine-hole qualifying rounds on Saturday and until 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Tournament play of 18 holes will begin shortly afterward when the qualifiers will be paired on the basis of their nine-hole scores.

The tourney is divided into five flights, Championship, A, B, C and D. The golfer's qualifying score will determine his flight. Trophies will go to the winners in all five flights and to the medalist of the qualifying round. Valuable merchandise prizes will be awarded to close finishers in each flight.

George Thomasetti, Country View manager, said he has made arrangements to accommodate the anticipated field and food and refreshments will be available at the club house and on the course.

The tournament is a Missouri Sand Greens Assn. sanctioned event.

Postponed Games Set For This Evening

The Babe Ruth games that were postponed Wednesday night because of rain will be played to-night at Liberty Park. McCown's will play Anderson's at 6 p.m. and Brown's will play Western Auto at 8 p.m.

Thirty states of the Union have from 40 to 140 inches of snowfall per year.

Musial Hits 369th Home Run of Career To Tie for Sixth

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Stan (The Man) Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals hit his 369th career home run last night, tying Ralph Kiner, the former Pittsburgh Pirates walloper, for sixth place in the all-time major league list.

It was Musial's 17th of the season, coming with a man on base in the first inning of a 6-4 victory over Philadelphia that kept the Cards in the National League lead.

Only Babe Ruth (714), Jimmy Fox (534), Mel Ott (511), Lou Gehrig (494) and Ted Williams (437) have hit more than Musial, who began the year in ninth place. He already has passed Johnny Mize (359) and Joe DiMaggio (361) this season.

Only Williams is still active among the top five, with 19 home runs this season for the Boston Red Sox.

Malzone Has League Agog With His Feats

BOSTON (AP)—Boston rookie third baseman Frank Malzone—once haunted by injury and tragedy—today has the American League agog over his feats at bat and afield.

Nicknamed The Glove, Malzone has risen from obscurity to lead the league in hits (89) and the Red Sox in runs batted in (44) and doubles (18).

His .324 batting average is second only to Ted Williams' on the club and seventh best in the AL.

Typical of his play this year, Malzone drove in five runs on four hits—including a two-run homer yesterday as Boston swept a double-header from Chicago 8-3 and 9-2.

Life was not always thus for the 27-year-old native of the Bronx, N. Y.

Back in 1950 when he broke his ankle in the season's second game at Scranton, the physician who set it was sure he never would play baseball again.

"He didn't tell me that when it happened," Malzone said, "but the next year when I reported he told me I had amazed him. My leg had been in a cast for three months. I had torn everything. The ankle was completely dislocated."

Then followed two years in the service.

In the winter preceding the 1956 season, the Malzones were gripped by the loss of a baby.

Frankie got his chance at third base with Boston as the season began but the loss still cut too deeply. After 27 games, he was hitting a feeble .165 and was shipped to the San Francisco farm club.

Almost another month went by before he found himself.

Overnight, the transition was complete. In a torrid stretch race, he finished with a .296 batting average and held the Seals together as cleanup hitter when injuries struck teammates.

Now the father of a son, Malzone isn't surprised at his batting success.

"I thought I'd hit pretty well up here," he said. "Probably not so high as I am but I knew I'd hit .280 or thereabouts. Over the years I've seen most of these pitchers in the minors."

Upsets Take Toll in NCAA Golf Tourney

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Handsome Rex Baxter Jr. of Houston's National champions and gangling Ernie George of San Jose State were the favorites to gain the finals of the upset-studded 60th annual NCAA golf championships today.

Upsets took a big toll yesterday in fiery duels that saw nine of the 24 matches settled either on the last hole or in a sudden-death playoff. The day's longest match went 22 holes.

Baxter, the Trans-Mississippi champion, eased past two opponents yesterday.

Fire ball Joe Campbell of Purdue, never ahead and erratic on the greens, lost to Yale's Peter Nisselson, 2 and 1.

Baxter, 21, downed teammate Frank Wharther, 3 and 2, in his third round match.

George gained the favorite's role in the upper bracket by shooting sub-par golf in downing Bill Redding of Purdue 3 and 2.

While George is the tallest player in the meet at 6-5, dapper little Marcellino Moreno, all 125 pounds of him, is the smallest at 5 feet 4.

He threw 1-up shockers yesterday at two heavily favored opponents and was matched today against Roger Rubendall, the medalist from Wisconsin, in the lower bracket.

Baxter and Nisselson, last year's Eastern Intercollegiate title, were paired in the other lower-bracket match.

In the upper bracket with George were three virtual unknowns. They are sophomore Ward Wettlaufer of Hamilton College, who tackled George yesterday, and Stan Hobert, an Arizona State senior, and North Carolina's Donnell Adams, who also clashed.

Adams is the old man of the quarterfinals at 24 years. A sophomore, he went 20 holes yesterday to beat Detroit's Tom Watrous, 1 up.

Wettlaufer ousted Stanford's Bill Seaton, 3 and 2, and Hobert played the day's hottest round—3 under par—to trim Southwest Intercollegiate champion Jim Hickey of Houston, 6 and 5.

Finsterwald Leads Western Open Tourney

DETROIT (AP)—With a near-record six-under-par 65 to show for his first day's work in the $25,000 Western Open golf tournament, young Dow Finsterwald still found some room for improvement as the 72-hole test moved into the second round today.

"I'm not complaining, mind you," said the boyish-looking 27-year-old who ranks third among golf's money winners, "but I was all over this course—and my chipping could have been a lot better."

Finsterwald said he was in the woods and the rough most of the day, but there were 11 greens on which he required only one putt.

And his 65—one over the course record at Plum Hollow Golf Club—gave him a one-stroke margin over former National Amateur titleist Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

For Finsterwald, former Ohio University golfer now playing out of Tequesta, Fla., the 65 was his lowest round of the year. It came on a 6,892-yard course made muggy by showers that lasted all night prior to the tournament and most of the day.

Right behind Maxwell with 67s were Bill Casper of Bonita, Calif.; Max Evans of Rochester, Mich.; Ken Venturi of San Francisco, and long-hitting Babe Lichardus of Hillsdale, N. Y.

Seven others were bracketed another stroke behind. This group included Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Ed (Porky) Oliver of Canton, Mass., both former Western Open winners. National Open champion Dick Mayer and leading money winner Doug Ford were bucked with nine others at 69.

Are They for Real?

Giants Have Low Averages; Still Have Many Victories

The Associated Press

Are New York's Giants for real? They're still in sixth place in that hectic National League race, but they've won 12 of their last 16—with half of the victories against Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

And they've been doing it with only one .300 hitter (Willie Mays, .317) and just three pitchers who have won more than they've lost (Ruben Gomez, 9-5; Al Worthington, 7-4; and Ray Crone, 4-2).

Mays and southpaw Johnny Antonelli, two leftovers from the 1954 pennant team, and rookie catcher Valmy Thomas moved the Giants within 3 1/2 games of fifth place last night with a 7-2 victory over Cincinnati, which fell from second to third.

The St. Louis Cardinals retained first place, by half a game, as young Von McDaniel, the $50,000 bonus right-hander, won his third in a 6-4 decision over fourth-place Philadelphia. Milwaukee took over second place, beating fifth-place Brooklyn 2-1 on Bob Buhl's four-hitter.

Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in 10 innings on an RBI triple by Jim Pendleton, who had three of the Pirates' six hits.

The American League race tightened, with Chicago and New York sharing the lead after Boston beat the White Sox twice 8-3 and 9-2, and Cleveland's Early Wynn handed the Yankees their first shutout 2-0 with a four-hitter.

Detroit salvaged only a half-game edge over Boston for fourth place after a 7-2 thumping at Washington.

Mays unloaded his 13th home run, with a man on, in the first against loser Don Gross and the Giants then made it 5-0 in the second with Thomas knocking in two runs. The Giants totaled 12 hits, including Whitney Lockman's solo homer.

Stan Musial and Ken Boyer slugged two-run homers for the Cards, with Boyer's the clincher in the seventh. Jack Sanford was 6-6 with a six-hitter.

Antonelli squared his record at the loser.

McDaniel, the 18-year-old who now is 3-0, gave up his first run in four appearances when Gran Hamner's single and Ed Bouchee's double ended his shutout string at 19-23 innings in the third. The kid also was tagged for a Stan Lopata homer, and finally gave way to Hoyt Wilhelm in a two-run eighth after Hamner tripled.

Buhl won his fifth in a row for a 9-2 record, losing a two-hit shutout in the ninth on singles by Gil Hodges, who had two hits, and Gino Cimoli and an infield out. Hank Aaron's two-run triple in the eighth did it against Don Drysdale.

Frank Malzone drove in five runs for the Red Sox, counting three with a home run in a four-run nightcap first against Billy Pierce, who lost his fourth in a row for a 10-6 record Mike Fornieles won it.

A one-hit, four-run first paid off in the opener too. Frank Sullivan won it, with relief help.

Wynn and Tommy Byrne, both 37, had a pretty fair duel, but the Tribe right-hander grabbed a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Al Smith "walked" to second on a wild pitch, went to third on a fly and scored on an infield out. Dick Williams' second single came ahead of Bobby Avila's triple in the seventh for the other run.

Washington had a 6-0 lead against loser Paul Foytack and Billy Hoelt as the Senators cracked 9 of their 10 hits in the first three frames. Camilo Pascual won it, Jim Lemon homered and drove in two runs.

Their rounds of 72-38-34 for Marlene and 34-38 for Alice—were the only ones that beat the tough par of 37-36-73.

Only one stroke behind them, going into today's second round was Gloria Armstrong, a power-hitting 180-pound pro from Oakland, Calif., who just matched par with a 37-36-73 round.

Two strokes back were Betsy Rawls, who won the first USGA Women's Open in 1953 and has walked off with top money in three tournaments this year, and redheaded Betty Dodd of Louisville, Ky., who has finished among the first five in eight tournaments this year.

Sisters Lead Open Golf Tourney

MAMARONECK, N. Y. (AP)—The unusual situation that found sisters sharing the lead in the 12th Women's National Open golf championship also found a bunch of very tough tournament competitors chasing them in today's second round.

From the appearance of the practice round and putting greens at Winged Foot after the girls completed their opening chores, the other women pros don't intend to yield the honors—and $1,800 top prize money—to either Marlene Bauer Hagge or Alice without a struggle.

At one time blonde Betty Jamerson, who was only three strokes off the sub-par 72s shot by the Bauer sisters on their opening round, had two male pros and one of her feminine rivals, Mary Lena Faulk, trying to improve her putting form.

But Mrs. Hagge, a 5-3, 110-pound girl who gets amazing results with a wierd looping swing, and her older sister, a blonde who is an inch or so shorter and a few pounds lighter, are the ones to beat in this record size women's tournament.

Their rounds of 72-38-34 for Marlene and 34-38 for Alice—were the only ones that beat the tough par of 37-36-73.

Only one stroke behind them, going into today's second round was Gloria Armstrong, a power-hitting 180-pound pro from Oakland, Calif., who just matched par with a 37-36-73 round.

Jerry Lewis In Hollywood Evacuation

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — Jerry Lewis is joining the evacuation from Hollywood.

At least that's what the funny man says. He plans to pull up stakes this fall and move his family to Connecticut. Why? Because he doesn't like the backbiting. The petty gossip of the movie town.

Jerry has had his share. His lengthy split-up with Dean Martin caused much bitterness. Jerry and his wife Patti want to rear their family in an atmosphere away from the movie world with its constant yakity-yak about pictures, picture people and nothing else.

"I'll come to Hollywood twice a year to make pictures," Jerry vowed. "The rest of the time I'll live in the East."

There's just no stopping "The Drunkard," which is staggering into its silver anniversary July 6. Imagine it—8,700 performances of

University Reports High Average Salary For 1957 Graduates

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Lehigh University reports that engineers recently graduated started work at an average salary of $465 a month. Arts-and-science graduates are averaging $391 a month.

However, the 1957 class placed money seventh when asked to list what influenced them most in picking jobs. The seniors listed in order: Type of work offered, location of company, reputation, training program, interviewing policies, size of company and finally salary.

Step Mother

GALT, Ont. — Ernest Smith was surprised when he went to the barn to gather eggs. To find his son's pet pigeons sitting on five hen's eggs.

The show since it opened in 1931! The ancient melodrama, first produced by P. T. Barnum, is now played in a delightful musical version, "The Wayward Way," but audiences still love to hiss the villain and cheer the down-trodden hero. The show has expended eight heroes, six heroines and five villains during its monumental run.

The closest long-run champ is "Life With Father" which managed 3,224 performances in New York. Long live "The Drunkard!"

It took a lot of nerve for Richard Widmark to switch from tough guy roles to play the mincing, cowardly dauphin in "St. Joan." It's a fine performance, proving what his fellow actors have long contended: The Widmark is one of the town's best actors.

Murrow Has Tito Program On Schedule

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Edward R. Murrow will present a filmed interview with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia over the CBS-TV network Sunday at 3:30 p.m. EDT.

Following Murrow's interview, there will be a live panel discussion of Tito's remarks in an attempt to set them in the perspective of international tensions. The special 90-minute telecast will be rebroadcast by CBS Radio at 9:30 p.m. EDT.

There was criticism of CBS for not having an immediate commentary after the celebrated Khrushchev interview. The idea of a quick panel is interesting also in the light of suggestions that this country and Russia exchange TV programs.

This development in television journalism lends special interest to an interview with Murrow appearing next week in the July issue of Television magazine, a trade publication, in which he says it's time for American advertisers and broadcasters to take stock.

"It might be helpful if those who control television and radio would sit still for a bit and attempt to discover what it is they care about," Murrow told Television Magazine.

"That they have a great belief in the power and future of these instruments is certainly the case. But if television and radio are to be used to entertain all of the people all of the time, then we have come perilously close to discovering the real opiate of the people."

Murrow believes that popular entertainment must constitute a substantial portion of TV programming. But if the mass appeal thesis is carried to an extreme, he feels that the prestige of the medium will be lowered—and even its commercial credibility will suffer.

"If this is taking place," he said, "and I think that is exactly

Awards to Seven Insurance Men Made Friday

Sedalia Association of Life Underwriters at its monthly meeting Friday noon at the Pacific Cafe honored seven life insurance agents in this area. At that time National Quality awards, in which only about four per cent of 400,000 life insurance agents qualify each year, were presented.

The N.Q.A., mathematical formula, which stated in general terms, requires substantial volume of business be written and a low lapse ratio maintained.

Those in a four county area to receive the awards were James Denny and Walter Schmide, Sedalia; William Barbee, Clinton; to receive the award for the first year: H. F. Conrad, Warrensburg, fourth year; William L. Reed, Sedalia, fifth year; Abe Silverman, Sedalia, ninth year, and Virgil Ragar, Sedalia, 12th year.

Vernon Rodick, president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, presented the awards.

Business Rise

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Officers brought a man before City Judge James Demopolos on a vagrancy charge.

"What's your business?" Demopolos asked.

"I'm unemployed," was the answer.

"How do you support yourself?" the judge pressed.

"I don't need any money to get along," the man said.

"Well, you'll need some now," Demopolos replied. "I fine you $20 for vagrancy."

What is happening, then, it seems to me, the medium may begin to change again. For sponsors may start to look for something more than it is providing.

"Perhaps the answer is that so-called public service programming has got to get better. It must be done with more imagination, and achieve greater appeal. I think it can be done."

Language Is Big Barrier To Americans In Germany

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Reverie at the typewriter keys:
What did Alexander the great and John Barrymore have in common?

A thing shared by Kubla Khan, Guy de Maupassant, Martin Luther, John Wesley and Isaac Newton. It also knitted together Charles Darwin, Talleyrand, Samuel Johnson, William Pitt, Alfred Tennyson, Gen. Winfield Scott, Edward Gibbon, Francis Bacon, and William Harvey, who discovered the circulation of the blood.

All these famous men—soldiers, statesmen, scientists, poets, philosophers and scholars—are linked by one thing: They all suffered from gout, the disease of greatness.

A question that fascinates many people is "if you could afford to live anywhere in the world, where would you choose?"

I have asked this question of hundreds of people I have interviewed—and many have promptly thrown it right back to me.

Far places lure many people. But when they get right down to facts, most of them admit these are places they merely want to see. When it comes to steady living, most of them want to live right where they are—at home.

The only thing that interests many Americans today more than the size of their stomachs is what they put into it.

In a time of prosperity, such as now, they can afford to experiment with exotic foods—and they do. But even in expensive restaurants, they still sell 10 plates of corned beef hash to one order for pheasant under glass.

One of the quickest ways to reduce is to pick a favorite food—and eat nothing else, day after day.

The food that cloy the palate least in long periods of hunger is probably the food that forms the staple diet of most of Asia's teeming millions—rice.

Once I interviewed an American officer who subsisted for nearly

National Jaycees Elect Shearer As New President

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Charles E. Shearer, a 34-year-old attorney of Shelbyville, Ind., was elected national president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday by acclamation. Shearer has been a member of the organization since 1949 and a national vice-president of the Jaycees.

On the first ballot cast by the delegates in the huge Milwaukee Arena, Shearer received 1,559 votes. His opponents, William R. Risher of Hamburg, S. C., and Larry Woodworth of Kent, Wash., received 812 and 752 votes, respectively. He lacked the clear majority required for election under Jaycee rules.

Voting on the second ballot remained the same. With the delegations voting under the unit rule, a member of the Minnesota group challenged the vote and asked for a poll of the members. However, this still was not enough to swing the tide to Shearer.

Then Risher advanced to the podium and moved that the entire convention elect Shearer by acclamation. Woodworth followed with an identical motion.

Shearer is married and the father of two daughters. He is active in Shelbyville affairs, including the Community Fund, Boys' Club, Cerebral Palsy Fund and the Boy Scouts.

GOP Candidate Picked to Run For NY Mayor

NEW YORK (AP)—Hotel executive Robert K. Christenberry, picked by the Republican leaders to run for mayor in this heavily Democratic city, said, "I do not feel like a lamb being led to slaughter."

"I believe I will win," the 58-year-old one-handed World War I veteran said after he was designated yesterday by the GOP leaders of the city's five counties. (He lost his right hand in France with the Marines.)

Christenberry will face Mayor Robert F. Wagner, son of the late U.S. Sen. Robert F. Wagner, who sponsored the Labor Relations Act and much other important New Deal legislation.

Wagner has both Democratic and Liberal party support for a second four-year team at the November election. The Liberal party, which exists only in New York state, can be the balance of power in a close race between the Republicans and Democrats.

Christenberry is president of the Ambassador Hotel and formerly was chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, which supervises boxing and wrestling, through appointment by former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

He came out of the cotton farm country of west Tennessee to become a big name in the hotel industry. He never has held an elective office, but has occupied a number of appointive government posts.

Involves Wreck with Duke; Says Pleasure Was His Own

LONDON (AP)—A motorist in a position to know said today you could hardly ask for a nicer guy to run into you than the husband of the Queen of England.

From all accounts, however, Queen Elizabeth II was not amused.

The motorist is Ronald Sutcliffe, an officer of the Royal Customs and Excise Service.

He was tooling along in his pint-size sedan of prewar vintage two evenings ago at Stames, near Windsor Castle, when wham!

"When I felt the knock," Sutcliffe told a reporter, "I got out of my car thinking, 'Some stupid clod's hit me.'"

"I was expecting an argument."

Sutcliffe walked around his sedan and found a big sports car with one of its head lights knocked off.

At the wheel was Prince Philip—who had just made a speech at a safe-driving meeting in London. "The Duke," Sutcliffe related, "was so pleasant he took the wind right out of my sails."

"It's all right," he said. "It was my fault."

"There was a lady by his side who I now realize was the Queen. But I've only seen pictures of Her Majesty smiling—and she certainly wasn't smiling then."

"When I told my wife all about it later I said, 'She looked just as disapproving as you would if I

2 Witnesses Defy Senate Probe Group

Court Decision as Grounds For Balk in Security Probe

By J. W. Davis

WASHINGTON, June 27—(AP)—Two Senate witnesses seized on a 10-day-old Supreme Court decision today as grounds for refusal to say whether they were Communists when they had access to official government messages.

The two, appearing before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, were Howard V. Trautman and Salvatore A. Testa, both of New York and both members of the American Communications Assn.

Their testimony produced these results:

1. They were suspended from their jobs, of automatic telegraph operator and radio operator, respectively, by RCA Communications, Inc. The company said it acted in line with a policy "to guard against subversion and to maintain protection for its employees and property against possible espionage or sabotage."

2. Their stand set up what may be a guideline for others. Instead of relying on the Constitution's Fifth Amendment protection against self-incrimination, they used the First Amendment and the Supreme Court's June 17 decision in the John T. Watkins case.

SENATE TRIAL HINTED

3. Sen. Hruska (R-Neb) mentioned the possibility of a trial before the Senate—which has sent people to jail in the past for contempt—rather than in the courts.

This was the first time witnesses in an open committee meeting have invoked the Watkins decision, one of several recent ones by the court which have set off a storm of debate.

Trautman said that under the Watkins ruling he could not be required to testify about his "beliefs, expressions or associations."

He said the question as to whether he was a Communist exceeded the committee's jurisdiction.

In the Watkins case, the court held there is no congressional power "to expose for the sake of exposure" and that instructions to an investigating committee must "spell out that group's jurisdiction" (Please turn to page 4, Column 2)

Retail Merchants Hold Sixth Annual Appreciation Days

The sixth annual Sedalia Appreciation Days will be held Friday and Saturday, June 28 and 29. The event is sponsored each year by the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Most of the merchants will have special priced items of merchandise and the shoppers will be allowed to park free in the downtown district through the courtesy of the City Council. Also free swimming tickets will be given away with purchases for those under 16 years old. The Sedalia Park Board is cooperating in furnishing the free swimming tickets to both the Hubbard and Liberty Park pools.

A break-in was discovered at the Dunn Beverage Co. at 5:26 a.m. Wednesday. A thief or thieves broke in the building and then into the office. Two drawers were pried out in the safe with a chisel. The bolts were also pried off. The safe was ransacked and nothing else bothered.

The owner, Lester Dunn, discovered the break-in and called the police. He stated that they closed the building the night before at 7:30 p.m.

A call was received of a break-in and safe-cracking at the Pepsi-Cola plant, at 7:27 a.m. Thursday. A thief or thieves reportedly climbed over the rear east fence, broke open the rear door, and went into the front office. Gas bombs were used to break open both safes. They also knocked off the combinations to both safes. They left other things alone.

City Teachers Win Citation For Efforts

Announcement Made By President of NEA At 100th Convention

The Sedalia Community Teachers Association received a citation today from Miss Martha Shull, president of the National Education Association.

The citation was awarded as the 703,000 member NEA began its centennial convention in Philadelphia. The Sedalia Association was praised for its contributions toward the advancement of centennial activities and for furthering the cause of education both locally and nationally.

Highlights of the year's activities were an Education-Business Day when 50 of the Sedalia businessmen visited the schools, and their Centennial Banquet when various business and professional people were guests.

Their life memberships in the NEA have increased from three to 44 in the past year.

President of the local group is Mrs. Mabel Howe, 420 West Broadway, a mathematics teacher at Broadway School.

Delegates from Sedalia will be among the more than 6,000 members of the Representative Assembly, meeting this week.

Vice President Richard Nixon will head a large list of speakers. Other events scheduled include the issuing of the NEA commemorative stamp, presentation of School Bell Awards to communications media who have done outstanding jobs of interpreting education, and demonstrations of closed circuit educational television.

A fourth of July Salute to Teachers will be staged at Independence Hall.

'Rocket Curtailment Error'

Nickerson Persists Wilson Was Wrong

By Arthur Everett

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., June 27—Col. John C. Nickerson Jr., standing every last inch of his ground, today accused Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson of "grave errors" in curtailing the Army's guided missile program.

"These are grave errors which greatly diminish our over-all combat powers—they are errors not likely to be balanced by corresponding Russian errors," added the 41-year-old field-grade officer in a defiant statement directed at Wilson, second only to President Eisenhower in American military power.

PARALLELS MITCHELL

Thus Nickerson followed the same lonely path trod 32 years ago by Brig. Gen. William (Billy) Mitchell. His career was wrecked by his stubborn insistence that the then-infant air arm of the military was being dangerously neglected. Nickerson faces the same possible fate for his defense of the Army missile program.

With a quick, tight smile for his attractive wife, Nickerson took the witness stand in his own defense in the third day of his court-martial at nearby Redstone Arsenal, where the Army has developed its 1,500-mile Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile, the Jupiter.

CLIMAX TO FEUD

Nickerson climaxed a 10-year-old interservice feud by using secret data in a fight to save the IRBM program for the Army after Wilson turned it over to the Air Force.

"I am as far out on a limb as I can get," Nickerson said ruefully. Then he accused Wilson of ignoring expert advice and bowing to pressure from the Air Force, the aircraft industry and Congress in his Nov. 26 memorandum of decision.

Nickerson said the Air Force and the aircraft industry want to

Two Are Hurt In Auto Crash North of City

Two Cars Collide Thursday Evening At Farm Driveway

Two persons were injured, neither seriously, in a two-car collision about 8:20 Thursday evening. The accident occurred about five miles north of Sedalia on Highway 65 one-fourth mile north of the Bothwell School.

Richard Dee Schroeder, 20, Route 4, received multiple lacerations and his eight-month-old daughter, Stephanie, suffered a broken left arm. Schroeder's wife, Barbara, 20, who was also riding in the car was not injured.

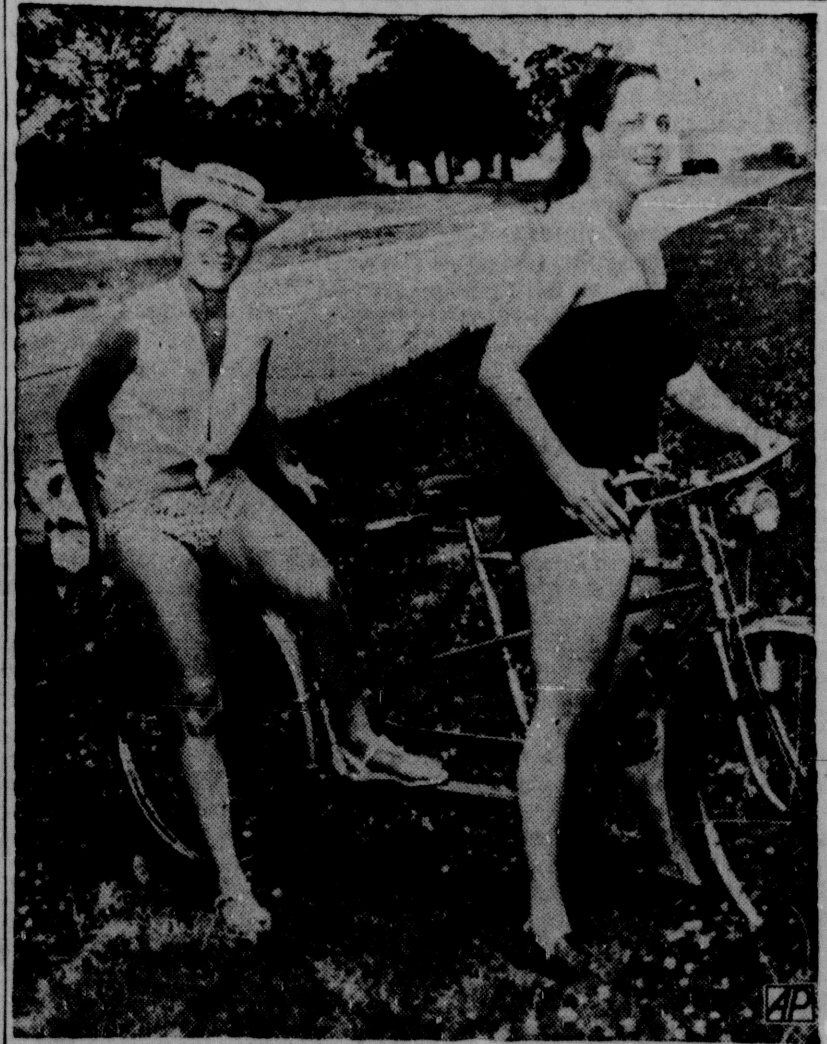

The driver of the other car, Jerry L. Engle, formerly of Sedalia and now of Marshall, apparently was not injured.

SLOWED FOR TURN

The accident occurred as Engle attempted to pass the Schroeder car as it slowed to turn into a lane leading up to the farm of Charles Wise, Route 4. The Schroeders were on their way to a birthday party at the Wise home when the accident occurred. Both cars were traveling north.

Engle's 1957 Mercury station wagon was extensively damaged and came to a halt in the ditch on the west side of the road. The Schroeder car, a 1956 Chevrolet, was rolled over by the crash and landed on its top partially in the ditch, also on the west side of the road.

Russian Warning On Reich

Rules Out Unity If W. Germany Gets A-Weapons

MOSCOW, June 27—(AP)—The Soviet Union declared today hopes of German reunification can be buried if West Germany accepts nuclear armaments from the West.

In a note which appeared certain to have repercussions in the U. N. disarmament talks now going on in London, the Soviet Union told West Germany "nuclear armament of Germany and German reunification are irreconcilable."

A settlement of world political conflicts, which would include reunification of Germany, has been tied into proposals submitted to the London conference.

The United States has proposed a three-phase reduction of Soviet and U. S. armed forces, provided it is accompanied by an improvement in East-West political relations. The United States also has assured West Germany, which is not represented in the London talks, that it would be consulted on all measure undertaken to reach a disarmament agreement.

The Soviet note—handed to West German Ambassador Wilhelm Haas by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko—declared West Germany was setting itself up as an arbiter in the London negotiations. The note also accused West Germany of trying to make agreement of disarmament dependent on "certain conditions."

The Kremlin declared the Bonn government would have to bear full responsibility for the consequences of its cooperation with the West.

Car-Truck Crash Fatal To Independence Man

CAMERON, Mo., June 27—Leo Earl Offield, 34, Independence, Mo., was killed and his wife and two children injured today when his car struck a stalled semi-trailer truck about 15 miles north of here.

His wife, Dorothy, 35, was reported in a critical condition at a hospital here. Less seriously injured were their two children, Lavaghn, 8, and Vanessa, 5.

Porter E. Dethels, 25, Waterloo, Iowa, said he had run out of gas and another truck was trying to push his truck off of the slab at the time of the accident.

Held in $10,770 Robbery Man Says He Doesn't Remember Bank Theft

RICHMOND, Mo., June 27—(AP)—A 51-year-old Kansan held in connection with the $10,770 robbery of a bank at Orrick was quoted by police today as saying he couldn't remember anything about the holdup.

State Trooper E. A. Butler said John Sweeney Hickman of Ottawa-Kan., told him, "I feel sure I robbed the bank, or I wouldn't have had the money."

Butler and other officers questioned Hickman at the Richmond hospital, where he is being treated for chest injuries suffered when his car plunged into a ditch about six miles west of Orrick.

A posse found Hickman lying exhausted in a wheat field a short distance from the wreckage. The loot from the Citizens Exchange Bank was found in underbrush about 25 yards from the car.

Hickman wrecked his car while fleeing from armed citizens, who took up the chase as the bandit drove out of town.

Butler said Hickman, an unemployed surveyor, told him that he remembers setting off two explosions in Orrick a few minutes before the lone bandit invaded the bank. He said Hickman also recalled driving out of Orrick, but claimed that he didn't remember wrecking the car.

Sheriff H. D. Brown said Hickman, who had worked in Orrick previously said he knew the bank president and several employees.

New Church Union Appeals

Christians Urged To Become United

By George W. Cornell

CLEVELAND, June 27—(AP)—The United Church of Christ, born of a marriage of two long-separated Protestant bodies, today voiced its desire that all Christians be joined "in one flock, with one shepherd."

In a message to "the whole church of Jesus Christ throughout the world," the General Synod of the newly-merged denominations said:

"At this moment of the joyous new access of life imparted by the union, the United Church of Christ is stricken in conscience at its continuing separation from the rest of the church."

BID TO ALL CHURCHES

An official said the message was addressed to all Churches—Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox. This is in line with objectives stated in the merger plan describing Christ's whole church as greater than any one or all of them.

The message was adopted in a closing session of about 700 representatives of the Congregational Christian General Council and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, which were united to form the new denomination.

Speaking of this merger, which brought together the British-rooted Congregational Christians with their "free church" practices, and the German and Swiss derived E. and R. Church with its regulated structure, the message said:

"The union has been made possible because two companies of Christians have held and hold the same basic belief, that Christ and Christ alone is the head of the church."

Needs House Acceptance

Vote to Retain Soil Program In Senate-House Conference

WASHINGTON, June 27—(AP)—Senate and House conferees agreed tonight to keep the administration's farm soil bank program alive in the face of a previous House vote to kill it after this year.

Details of the closed-door compromise decision were not made public, but reports from the conference room indicated an immediate victory for administration forces.

The compromise proposal must still be accepted by the House, which will not have an opportunity to vote on it until Congress returns July 8 from its Fourth of July recess.

Conferees, seeking to work out a compromise of Senate and House differences, came to an agreement approximately in line with the bill passed by the Senate.

The Senate measure authorizing the obligation of 500 million dollars of soil bank payments to farmers in 1958. The House killed off payments of any funds after 1957.

The compromise action came in conference approval of a money bill making around $3,668,000,000 available to finance the Agriculture Department and government farm programs for the 1958 fiscal year starting next Monday.

The Senate bill appropriates $3,668,972,157 for agriculture in 1958—approximately 24 million dollars less than the House voted.

The total agreed upon by the conference committee was reported as somewhat less than the Senate figure, but not significantly so.

Details of the additional money cuts and the soil bank will not be known officially until the committee files its report next week.

ported to have been made in the Senate version.

For 1958 acreage reserve payments to farmers reducing surplus croplands, the conferees were reported to have accepted intact the Senate figure of 500 million dollars as against nothing by the House.

Rain Continues As Winds Drop To 75 M.P.H.

ORANGE, Tex., June 27—(AP) Hurricane Audrey, which took at least 17 lives and caused wide-spread damage along the Texas-Louisiana coast, was losing its punch tonight as it pushed inland toward the lower Mississippi Valley.

Winds of 100-miles-an-hour velocity had sent thousands of coastal residents in the two states scurrying for higher ground. But the winds dropped to 75 m.p.h. early tonight and the U. S. Weather Bureau said they would continue to diminish as the center of the season's first hurricane moved toward northeastern Louisiana, northern Mississippi and Southern Arkansas.

The heavy downpours that accompanied the hurricane were due to continue as it moved inland. The center of the hurricane had moved northeastward to near Alexandria, La., late today. Winds and rains diminished along the Texas coast.

ARRIVES EARLY

Audrey, which since Monday had been churning its way across the Gulf of Mexico, virtually leaped upon the coast today.

Only last night, it was not expected to hit until tonight. But the Port Arthur Weather Bureau pinpointed its center as striking at 8 a. m. at Cameron, La., about 30 miles southeast of here.

The 50-mile-wide eye passed over Orange in the familiar pattern: Hurricane winds, followed by dead calm, then renewed severe blow.

At least seven men drowned when the 78-ton fishing vessel Keturah struck an offshore drilling platform near Galveston Bay last night during the storm. At first, nine men were feared aboard, but the Warren Fish Co., boat owner, revised the crew list to seven. Another man drowned in a strong undertow.

Tipton Man Held For Try to Sell Liquor to Inmate

JEFFERSON CITY, June 27—(AP)—Richard W. Sprigg of Tipton, Mo., today was charged with attempting to sell or give spirituous liquor to an inmate of Alcoa Intermediate Reformatory, where he has been a guard.

The Cole County prosecuting attorney, James T. Riley, said if convicted Sprigg would face a maximum misdemeanor penalty of $500 fine or six months in jail.

Joseph W. Appleman, superintendent at Alcoa, said Sprigg reportedly bought wine onto the reformatory grounds a couple of months ago. Yesterday morning, Appleman said, he watched Sprigg arrive and put his car in the guards' garage.

When Sprigg got out, Appleman said, he put two half pint bottles of gin under the car next to a wheel so it could not be seen. Appleman said he confiscated the liquor but did not stop Sprigg until he saw him talking to an inmate. Then a Highway Patrol trooper was called to make the arrest.

Sprigg was in Cole County jail tonight under $500 bail.

Fugitive Seized By Police, F. B. I.

Thomas Elvares Culver, known locally as Tom Craig, was apprehended Thursday by local police and FBI agents, according to Percy Wyly II, special agent in charge of the Kansas City office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The arrest is based on a federal warrant charging Culver under the fugitive felon act with having fled the state of Oregon to avoid prosecution for the crime of burglary for which the maximum sentence under Sec. 1073, Title 18 of the U. S. Code is $5,000 fine or five-years' imprisonment, or both.
